TEACHER INTERVIEW BY AYL A CHEESMAN

MRS HARRISON—THE LIBRARIAN

1. What is your favourite Christmas smell?

It's got to be the turkey giblets boiling with the onions and carrots to make the gravy on Christmas eve. Dinner's on the way...

2. What is your favourite Christmas song?

There are two 'I'm Dreaming of a White Christmas' by Bing Crosby – it was a film we always watched when I was growing up so memories of being cosy, safe and warm with no responsibilities or food to prepare! Then there's 'All I want for Christmas is you' from Love, Actually – such a happy tune and another great film.

3. What do you like to eat at Christmas?

Everything – I LOVE food – red cabbage all sugary and sweet, bread sauce with cloves, parsnips with parmesan, ohhh, I'm salivating... and that's before dessert!

4. What is your favourite tradition on Christmas Day?

Listening to Ed Stewart on Radio Two and the really crass songs like 'My brother' by Terry Scott, 'Ernie' by Benny Hill etc – my boys hate it: far too silly for them ;)

5. Do you have a favourite Christmas book?

Santa Selfie by Peter Bentley. I never get bored of reading it and there is a copy at school. Of course having the selfie photo frame is a bit of fun too – thank goodness I now have a granddaughter to read with!

6. Do you like Brussels sprouts?

I used to hate them but I think your taste buds definitely change as you get older – now I'm 21 (cough, cough) I love them!

JOKES BY KATIE SWINNEY

Why don't you ever see Santa in hospital?

Because he has private elf care!

Who is never hungry at Christmas?

The turkey—he's always stuffed.

How did the two rival Christmas trees get along?

They signed a peace tree-ty!

JOKES BY ELLA WATKINS

What do you call a singing elf?

A Elf-is Presley

What did the Christmas tree say to the ornaments?

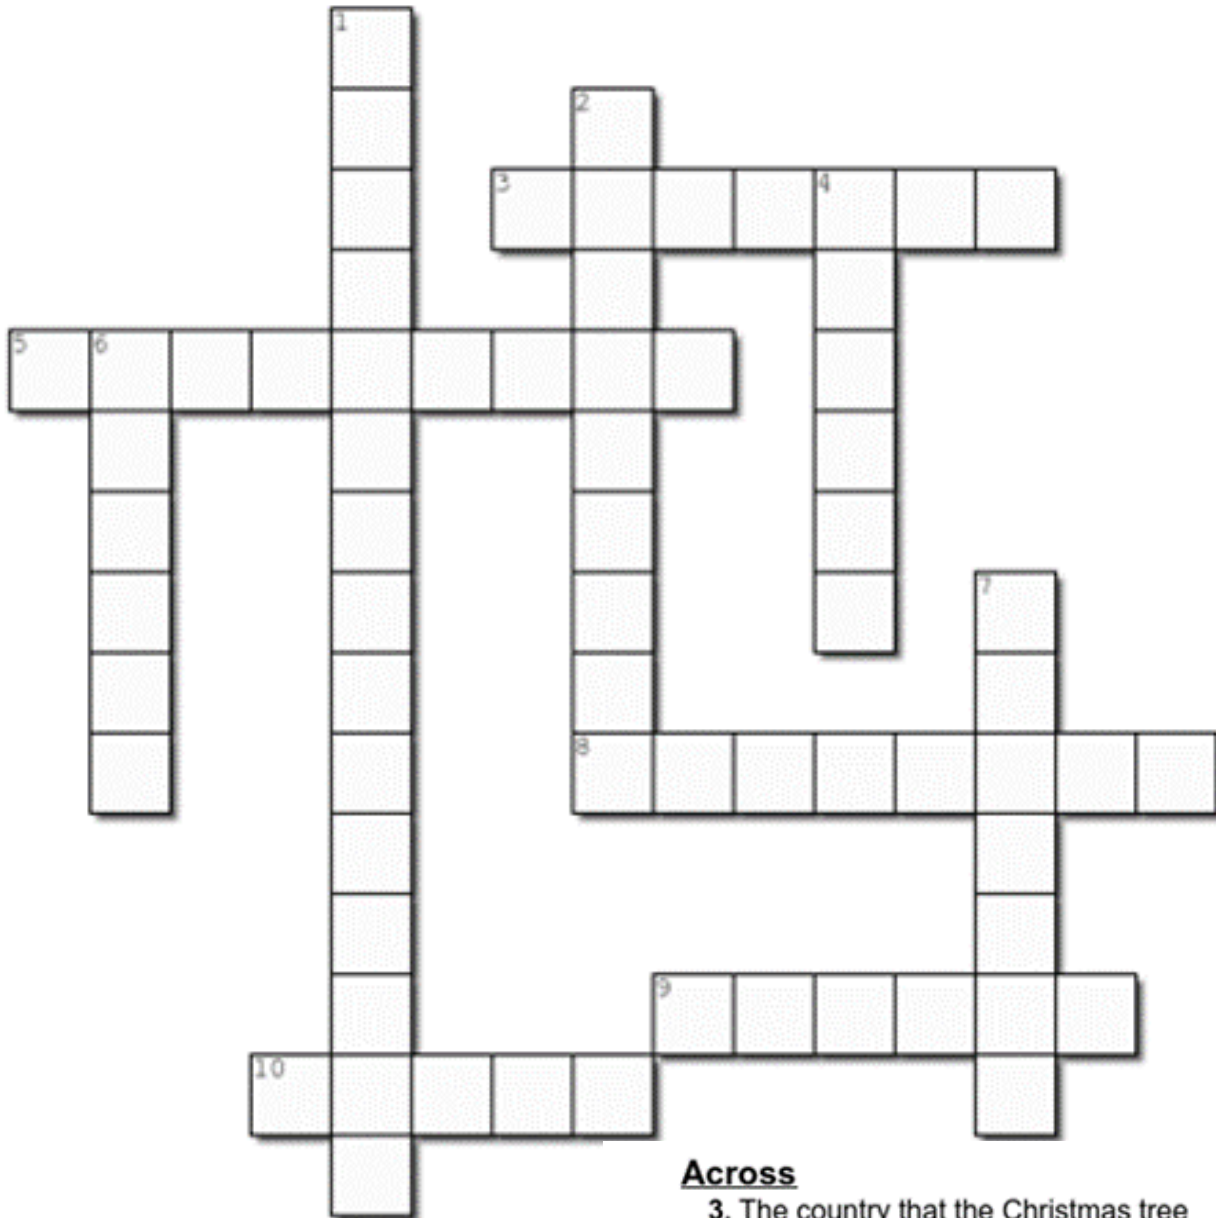

Quit hanging around!

What do you call Santa in the South Pole?

A lost Clause
